
Konstantinos Deligiannis Appointed President of Eurasian and African Growth Markets at GE HealthCare

Konstantinos Deligiannis has been appointed as President of Eurasian and African Growth Markets (EAGM) at GE HealthCare. In his new role, Deligiannis will oversee the company's operations across a vast region including Russia and CIS countries, the UAE, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Iran and Middle East countries, Egypt and North East Africa countries, and South Africa and Sub-Saharan countries.

Deligiannis has been with GE HealthCare for over five years, most recently serving as General Manager for Eastern Europe. In that role, he demonstrated exceptional leadership and a deep understanding of the healthcare industry, driving significant growth and operational excellence across his territories.

Deligiannis brings a wealth of experience and a proven track record of success to his new position, and his leadership is expected to play a key role in advancing GE HealthCare's presence and growth in the Eurasian and African markets. Deligiannis will continue to uphold its commitment to delivering high-quality healthcare solutions and expanding its reach in these diverse and dynamic regions.

Image Credit: LinkedIn

Published on : Tue, 23 Apr 2024