Arab Health Awards 2014 Honour Region's Healthcare Leaders

Marking its seventh year, the Arab Health Innovation & Achievement Awards continue to honour exceptional healthcare professionals across the Middle East, announcing the 2014 winners Wednesday night at a gala ceremony at the Dubai International Convention & Exhibition Centre.

The Awards were celebrated during the Arab Health Exhibition & Congress, the largest healthcare event in the region, which runs until Thursday 30 January 2014.

Nine awards were presented to highlight the region's growth and achievements in the healthcare field, with Saudi Arabia and Qatar emerging as the region's front runners taking home seven out of the nine awards.

The full list of winners for the 2014 Arab Health Innovation & Achievement Awards are:

- Excellence in Surgery Services Award: Saudi German Hospital – KSA
- Excellence in Radiology Award : Radiology Department at Hamad Medical Corporation – Qatar
- Roche Excellence in Laboratory Award: King Faisal Specialist Hospital and Research Center – Jeddah, KSA
- Excellence in Patient Centred Care Award: Cancer Transformation Team, Hamad Medical Corporation – Qatar
- Young Surgeon of the Year Award: Dr Khaled Abuhaleeqa, Mafraq Hospital – UAE
- Cleveland Clinic Young Clinician Award: Dr Ibrahim M Fawzy Hassan, Hamad General Hospital – Qatar
- Outstanding Contribution of an Individual to the Middle East Healthcare Industry Award : Engr. Sobhi Batterjee, President, Saudi German Hospital Group – KSA
- Outstanding Contribution to Medical Education in the Middle East Award: Dr Saad Aswad, Consultant Gynaecological Oncologist, Tawam Hospital – UAE
- Outstanding Achievement in the Medical Laboratory Field: Dr Samir S. Amr, President, International Academy of Pathology – KSA

Source: Arab Health

30 January 2014

Published on : Thu, 30 Jan 2014