
Gabriele Költringer Assumes Role as Managing Director at IT:U Austria

IT:U- Interdisciplinary Transformation University Austria appoints Gabriele Költringer as its new Managing Director. With a proven track record in leadership, visionary action, and a remarkable set of social skills, Gabriele is set to lead the university towards a transformative future.

Gabriele brings a wealth of experience in effective negotiation and people management, which are considered her absolute strengths. Her success is attributed to the implementation of clear structures, the successful execution of change projects, and the continuous development of the company. These factors have had a lasting impact on the overall performance of the organisations she has led.

Empowering employees and fostering a learning-conducive performance culture are key aspects of Gabriele's leadership style. Ambitious goals drive her, and her financial acumen, combined with a keen sense for numbers, form the foundation of her success. She is known for her commitment to a customer-centric corporate strategy, prioritizing customer satisfaction, and aligning the company's direction along the value chain.

Published on : Fri, 26 Jan 2024