
Stéphane Laurent Ventures into New Role as Associate Advisor at Téo

Stéphane Laurent is embarking on a new journey as Associate Advisor at Téo, a groundbreaking move in the healthcare sector. With a solid background in business development and transformation, particularly in the high-tech healthcare industry, Stéphane brings a wealth of experience to his new role.

Stéphane is renowned for his game-changing strategies and his ability to shift both culture and business readiness in fast-paced environments. His expertise in driving business development and transformation initiatives, coupled with a keen focus on customer and patient experiences, makes him an asset to Téo.

Having previously served as Partner and Director of Development and Strategic Partnerships at Téo, Stéphane has demonstrated exceptional leadership and strategic acumen. During his tenure, he played a pivotal role in expanding Téo's national network of primary and secondary ophthalmology practices, leveraging asynchronous telemedicine to address challenges in access to care.

At Téo, Stéphane will continue to drive initiatives aimed at enhancing individual patient care, optimising doctors' working time, and fostering collaboration within the local medical community. His results-driven approach, combined with his decisiveness and adaptability, is poised to bring further success to Téo's mission of revolutionising ophthalmological care in the UK.

Published on : Wed, 7 Feb 2024