
HealthManagement.org Welcomes New IT Editorial Board Member

HealthManagement.org is proud to welcome Prof Rachel Dunscombe as our new IT Editorial Board Member.

Prof Rachel Dunscombe is a visiting professor at Imperial College London since 2017 and Director of Digital for Salford Royal/NCA NHS Group, leading the organisation to be awarded most digitally mature in the NHS accolade.

For the last five years, Rachel has been the CEO of NHS Digital Academy, leading learning in digital health for England and Scotland. Since 2018, she has been a member of the UK AI council leading in AI in digital health and care.

Prof Dunscombe served on the international advisory board of KLAS and led the Arch collaborative global for KLAS research, supporting the big four in consulting in Australia, New Zealand, the U.S., Europe and low-to-middle income countries.

Prof Dunscombe was also recently voted deputy chair of the OpenEHR CIC, the global board for OpenEHR standards.

Published on : Fri, 7 Oct 2022