

7 Reasons to Attend Paris Healthcare Week

The Paris Healthcare Week is scheduled to take place from the 16th to 18th of May 2017 in Paris Expo, Paris, France. The Paris Healthcare Week is an annual event that is dedicated to healthcare professionals working within the French health ecosystem.

Here are some reasons why you shouldn't miss this event!

Leading Healthcare Event

The Paris Healthcare Week is one of the most leading events in France and is dedicated to healthcare technology, equipment and management solutions for healthcare facilities. If there's anything new or innovative in healthcare, this is your go-to event for the latest updates and information.

Diversified & Innovative

The Paris Healthcare Week offers a global and highly diversified portfolio of innovative healthcare solutions. The event hosts 5 trade fairs including Health-ITExpo, HopitalExpo / GerontHandicapExpo, Intermeditech and "Salon Infirmier."

Networking

The Paris Healthcare Week offers you the perfect opportunity to expand your network. With over 29,000 experts, decision makers and healthcare professions expected to be present here, this would be an ideal venue to discuss, learn from and meet healthcare professionals in IT, management, equipment and building.

Exclusive Look at Health IT Innovations

The Health-IT Expo at the Paris Healthcare Week offers you 270 exhibitors who will be displaying new technology related to eHealth. There will also be two special forums that will discuss in-depth current issues and topics related to Health IT and eHealth.

Hopital Expo

This part of the Paris Healthcare Week will provide updates on equipment and solutions for the management and transformation of healthcare facilities. Specifically, the Expo exhibits will focus on 5 sectors including Building, Equipment, Care, Hospitality and Management.

Intermeditech

At Paris Healthcare Week, you will have access to the only French professional event for suppliers and manufacturers of the medical device industry. Buyers, design engineers, managers, medical technology experts, process engineers, R&D managers, packaging specialist, product development engineers and technical procurement managers are likely to benefit from this event.

Salon Infirmier® – Nursing Event

This event is organised by Initiatives Santé and presents a tremendous opportunity to congregate nursing professionals in both the public and private sector. This would include nurses, chief nurses, private practice nurses and non-profit organisations. The event will include training, latest news and updates and interactions among peers.
