

Advocate Health Advisors Welcomes New Regional Manager Derek Hicks

The national, leading Field Marketing Organization in the Medicare industry continues to expand growing team

Advocate Health Advisors is thrilled to announce the continued expansion of their team with their most recent hire, Derek Hicks as regional manager Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. In his new role, Hicks will join the already thriving team in recruiting, training and empowering Medicare agents to become selfless contributors and experts in their local markets.

Hicks received his B.A. in Political Science from Indiana University of Pennsylvania before going on to earn his M.S. in Business Education from Robert Morris University. Hicks started his career in Medicare insurance as a Broker Administrator in 2002 and has served in numerous positions over the years within the industry, with his most recent role as a Field Agency Manager. Combined, Hicks has over 20 years of experience as a Medicare professional.

"I'm looking forward to building a successful team of agents to serve the healthcare needs of my community" expressed Hicks. "Throughout my career, I've prided myself on providing stellar service to the Medicare agent community at large and believe that strength of service is what sets one apart from the competition."

"We are excited to welcome Derek to help us grow our team of agents and to help seniors with their health choices." stated Regional Sales Director, Larry Carroll.

Hicks is based in the Cranberry Township Area of Westerns Pennsylvania with his wife and their two children. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family, attending church activities, and participating in the great outdoors.
