
Agneta Palmér Appointed as New Executive Vice President Operational Services

Agneta Palmér has been appointed Executive Vice President Operational Services and member of the Getinge Executive Team. The newly established function covers Group Purchasing, Logistics, IT and Academy and has been established to further strengthen group synergies.

Agneta joined Getinge in 2018 and most recently held the position as Vice President Corporate Control at Getinge. Prior to Getinge, she held similar positions at AB Volvo within the area of Business Controlling and Management consulting.

In her new role, Agneta will be a member of the Getinge Executive Team and report to Mattias Perjos, President & CEO. She takes up the position on September 15, 2022.

Source: Getinge

Published on : Thu, 14 Jul 2022