

Carestream Health announced an order for nine KODAK DIRECTVIEW DR 7500 Dual Detector Systems from University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust in England.

Carestream Health won the contract following a lengthy evaluation process, which included three other industry players. The equipment was purchased through the NHS Supply Chain using the Medical Imaging and Diagnostic Equipment Framework Agreement. NHS Supply Chain led the procurement process with the UHB procurement team.

Published on : Thu, 27 Nov 2008