
Carwyn Jones, New Director, Life Sciences at Graphnet

Carwyn Jones is the new Director, Life Sciences at Graphnet Health. Graphnet is UK's leading supplier of shared care record and population health solutions, holding records for over 20 million people. Specifically designed by clinicians and care professionals, the company's products provide integrated, smarter care across the UK health and social care system.

Jones has experience in multiple specialties including health technology, healthcare data & insights, global strategy, pharmaceutical marketing, healthcare communications, market access, digital marketing, digital channels, HCP engagement, pharmaceutical procurement, supplier relationship management, and commercial negotiations.

Published on : Fri, 28 Jan 2022