
Crozier Study Vindicates Alliance for MRI

The Crozier report, published yesterday, demonstrates that changes to existing practice would not be sufficient to comply with Directive 2004/40/EC and so the use of current equipment and procedures would need to stop.

In response to these findings, Commissioner Vladimir

Published on : Fri, 15 Jun 2007