

ESA 2014: Masimo to Present Symposia

Symposium June 1st

Location: Stockholmsmässan Room K1

Chairperson: Jean-Louis Vincent

Dates: Sunday June 1st, 12:15 to 13:45 - Lunch will be provided

Title: Hemodynamic Optimization: The Latest Strategies for Fluid and Blood Management

Welcome and Introduction: Jean-Louis Vincent

The Evolving Role of Hemodynamic Monitoring

Jean-Louis Vincent (Erasmus University Hospital, Brussels, Belgium)

Peri-operative Anemia, Bleeding and Blood Transfusion: New Methods of Assessing a Growing Problem

Juan Llau (University Hospital, Valencia, Spain)

Non-Invasive Assessment of Fluid Responsiveness

Daniel A. Reuter (University Hospital of Hamburg, Hamburg, Germany)

Patient Blood Management and Transfusion Optimization

Aryeh Shander (Englewood & Mount Sinai School of Medicine, NY, USA)

Panel Discussion, Q&A and Closing Remarks

www.masimo.com/hemodynamics

Symposium Monday June 2nd

Location: Stockholmsmässan Room A6

Chairperson: Pedro Gambus

Dates: Monday June 2nd, 12:15 to 13:45 - Lunch will be provided

Title: Clinical Advances in Brain Monitoring and Regional Oxygenation for Anaesthesia

Welcome and Introduction: Pedro Gambus

Expanding the role of EEG Monitoring to Identify Unique Anaesthetic Agent Signatures

Emery N. Brown (Harvard Medical School and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, USA)

Brain Function Monitoring: Where Do We Go From Here?

Pedro L. Gambus (University Hospital Clinic, Barcelona, Spain)

The Brain is Not just a Number – Applications and Advances for Processed EEG Monitoring and Regional Oximetry in Anaesthesia

Michael Ramsay (Baylor University Medical Center and Research Institute, Dallas, USA)

Panel Discussion, Q&A and Closing Remarks

Source: Masimo

Please Register and Submit your Questions at www.masimo.com/hemodynamics and <http://www.masimo.com/Brainisnotjustanumber/>

Published on : Fri, 16 May 2014