

European Radiology Team Proudly Announces Albert L. Baert Editorial Fellowship Recipients

The European Radiology Editorial Team is delighted to the recipients of the prestigious Albert L. Baert Editorial Fellowship! Our two Fellows will join us at ECR 2024 where they will have a special introductory meeting with the Editor in Chief Bernd Hamm, as well as our distinguished Deputy Editors. Over the next year they will participate in a remote training program, where they will learn the ins and outs of the journal to gain insight into the work of an Editor.

Dr. Caterina Beatrice Monti

She is a fourth year resident in Radiology at the University of Milan (Italy), where she also completed her PhD studies. Her main interests are cardiovascular imaging, cardiothoracic imaging, chest imaging, and artificial intelligence. In addition, she is devoted to study methodology and statistics. During her activity as a reviewer, she has been distinguished with the Insights into Imaging Best Reviewer award in 2022, among others.

Dr. Lucas de Pádua Gomes de Farias

She is a cardiothoracic radiologist working in the Department of Radiology at Sírio-Libanês Hospital (Brazil) and completed his PhD studies at the University of São Paulo Medical School (Brazil). In addition, Lucas is the Chest Coordinator of the Radiology Online Course for Residencies at the São Paulo Society of Radiology at Aliança Saúde. During his medical training, he received twice the scholarship from the Invest in the Youth program by the European Society of Radiology in 2017 and 2018.

Congratulations on this wonderful achievement and we look forward to welcoming you to our team!
