

First Watchman Implant Carried out in Belgium

The patient had previously suffered from frequent heavy bleeding as a result of this medication. The Watchman implant ensures that this patient no longer needs blood thinners and removes the risk of a cerebral stroke.

Atrial fibrillation is a form of cardiac arrhythmia characterised by irregular and disorganised electrical activity in the heart

Published on : Mon, 14 Dec 2009