
Frank Jimenez Named Vice President & General Counsel For GE Healthcare

GE announced the appointment of Frank Jimenez as Vice President & General Counsel of GE Healthcare effective February 21, 2022. In this role, Frank will be responsible for GE Healthcare's Global Law and Policy teams.

Pete Arduini, chief executive officer of GE Healthcare, said, "Frank's proven leadership and significant experience in government and across industries will be a critical asset for GE Healthcare as we make plans to become an independent company."

Jimenez brings more than three decades of legal experience and leadership, spanning both the government and private sector. He joins GE from Raytheon Technologies Corporation, an innovation leader in technologies across the full spectrum of aviation, space and defense, where he served as executive vice president & General Counsel. Prior to that role, Jimenez served as General Counsel for Bunge Limited, Xylem Inc., and ITT Corporation, where he managed the spin-offs of two public companies, Xylem and Exelis Inc.

In prior public service, Frank served as the 21st General Counsel of the Navy, one of seven Senate-confirmed Pentagon civilians of four-star equivalent rank overseeing the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps; Deputy General Counsel (Legal Counsel) of the U.S. Department of Defense; Principal Deputy General Counsel of the Navy; Chief of Staff at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development; and Deputy Chief of Staff and Acting General Counsel for Florida Governor Jeb Bush. Previously, he was a litigation partner at Steel Hector & Davis (now Squire Patton Boggs) in Miami, FL, and clerked for Judge Pamela Ann Rymer of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Pasadena, CA.

Jimenez serves on the boards of Equal Justice Works, the Yale Law School Fund, and HII (Huntington Ingalls Industries), as well as the advisory boards of the Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health, the Yale Law School Center for the Study of Corporate Law, the University of Miami Herbert Business School, and the National Security Institute of the Antonin Scalia Law School at George Mason University. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of Miami and received his law degree from Yale Law School. He also received an MBA degree from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a Master of Arts degree in National Security and Strategic Studies from the U.S. Naval War College.
