

Jean-Alexandre Kaminsky Promoted to Deputy General Manager & Associate at MYPLcxws

Jean-Alexandre Kaminsky has been promoted Deputy General Manager & Associate at MYPL. Previously, he worked as the Chief Operating Officer & Associate at MYPL. He has more than 20 years of experience in the healthcare business.

Both an entrepreneur and an intrapreneur, Jean-Alexandre Kaminsky has played a lead role in creating innovative startups (3D, VR, oncology) and has several business acquisitions to his credit. He has held numerous operational positions in several large groups (Samsung, Saint-Gobain), requiring the reinventing of the business approach and adapting to strong internal and regulatory constraints. Kaminsky is also very passionate about the issues raised by artificial intelligence and other health initiatives (technology, ethics, demand for health professionals etc...).
