
Luxembourg National Screening Programme invests in Sectra MicroDose Mammography

At Centre Hospitalier du Luxembourg, Zitha Klinik Luxembourg and Hospital St. Louis Ettelbruck, women participating in the national screening programme will now be offered mammography at the lowest possible dose.

The national breast screening programme in Luxembourg, established in 1992, covers all women aged 50 to 69 and has a participation rate of 64%.

Published on : Mon, 23 Nov 2009