

Qure.ai Appoints Harsh Vaish as its New Chief Financial Officer

Qure.ai, a leading healthcare AI company, today announced the appointment of Harsh Vaish as its new Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Harsh brings over two decade of global experience in Corporate Finance, M&A, Financial Planning & Strategy, Compliances and Internal Control. He has held various finance leadership positions in IT product and professional services companies in the past.

Harsh is a Rank Holder Chartered Accountant, having graduated from Shri Ram College of Commerce (SRCC), Delhi University. He is also an alumnus of the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, where he did his Executive General Management Program.

While commenting on the new leadership hire, Prashant Warier, Co-Founder and CEO of Qure.ai, said, “We are delighted to welcome Harsh to our leadership team. Harsh is a seasoned financial executive and is well-equipped to work with our management team to help us drive systematic business growth. Having led a large global finance organization, Harsh earned a reputation as a strong, ‘hands-on’ organizational leader and an excellent collaborator with commercial teams. His extensive international experience in finance leadership and his passion for numbers align perfectly with our vision. We believe Harsh’s expertise will play a vital role in building a strong finance function at Qure.ai as we continue to scale our operations and expand our global footprint”.

Commenting on his new role, Harsh said, “I am humbled and excited to join Qure.ai. I believe the potential for growth and value creation is tremendous, given the intellectual and passionate people I have already met in the Company, a strong brand & product portfolio, and an attractive international footprint. Having played a leadership role in similar business situations, I am confident we can develop and execute plans to drive consistent business growth. I look forward to becoming part of the Qure.ai family and partnering with the team to build our business”.

As Qure.ai’s new CFO, Harsh will lead the global finance function and will also be responsible for organic & inorganic growth, fundraising and investor relations.
