

Satellite Office Düsseldorf

Working worlds are changing – a fact that the owners of Satellite Office already recognised back in 1997. Their response was to create a range of luxurious work and conference spaces in premium locations in the big metropolises, available for flexible rental periods. Offices in Berlin, Hamburg, Munich and Zurich were the first Satellites in orbit. Düsseldorf has also had its own Satellite since March 2018. Housed in a historical building on Königsallee, Satellite Office has space for small events, confidential talks, exclusive meetings and conferences. The property has a discreet business club atmosphere with focused work going on in the silent co-working zones, and negotiations taking place in the fireside lounges. In such an exclusive space, cutting-edge conference technology is, naturally, matter of course.
