
Sectra and Philips to Distribute Sectra PACS in Japan

The Japanese medical devices market is the second largest in the world after the USA, which means that this development is highly significant for both companies. There is still an installed base of around 30 Sectra/Philips PACS systems in Japan as a platform and reference for future expansion in the quality-focused and demanding Japanese market.

Published on : Mon, 12 Apr 2010